Graduate Program

The Master's Program in Southeast Asian Studies is an interdepartmental program centered on the study of the arts and cultures of Southeast Asia and its diasporas. To understand Southeast Asia as a region, students need to make sense of and engage with its diverse expressive forms of culture (including visual arts, literature, and performance) which are crucial in building and maintaining individual as well as group identity both within and across national or ethnic boundaries.

This program is designed for students with a strong interest in Southeast Asia, including those already admitted or enrolled in another graduate program. Students can be concurrently enrolled in both the Southeast Asian Studies M.A. program and another graduate degree program. Students may also apply concurrently for the Southeast Asian Studies M.A. - Ph.D. Track in Anthropology, Comparative Literature, Ethnic Studies, History or Music.

Admission All applicants must fulfill the standard admission requirements as established by the Graduate Division. Additionally, applicants must submit a Statement of Purpose to indicate a serious interest in Southeast Asian Studies (or a specific country or area in this region) as well as a writing sample (such as a past term paper or course essay) to demonstrate basic skills of scholarship.

Foreign Language Students must acquire (or increase) a distinct level of proficiency in at least one language relevant to Southeast Asian Studies prior to beginning research for the thesis and no later than the fifth quarter in the program. The required proficiency can be demonstrated by way of an exam, by completing one year of course work with a "B" or better, or by alternate certification, including completion of an approved intensive summer language program. International students from Southeast Asia may use their native language to fulfill this requirement.

Course Work All students are required to pass the Proseminar in Southeast Asian Studies (ANTH 202/CPLT 200/SEAS 200) with a "B" or better. Additionally, students must pass (with a "B" or better) a graduate level seminar in four of the following six areas (any 100-level course must be paired with SEAS 292):

1. Southeast Asian performance

ANTH 126/AST 123/DNCE 123/MUS 123, ANTH 176/AST 127/DNCE 127/ETST 172/MUS 127, AST 119/MUS 119, AST 124/MUS 124

2. Southeast Asian religions

SEAS 206, AST 187/MCS 167/SEAS 177, CPLT 173U/MCS 173U

In addition, students can select four other graduate seminars or approved upper division undergraduate courses in accordance with their main field of interest and after approval by the Graduate Advisor and the student's Thesis Committee. A total of 40 units of coursework, including thesis, are required for the degree in Southeast Asian Studies.

Students concurrently enrolled in another graduate program may, when appropriate, include units earned in that program toward the 40 units of the M.A. in Southeast Asian Studies. However, there must be at least 36 units uniquely applied to the Southeast Asian Studies degree.

Plan I (Thesis) Students enrolled in the Southeast Asian Studies Graduate Program (for the terminal M.A.) must submit an essay (thesis) of 50-70 pages reflecting original research, written under the supervision of a member of the program who also functions as the chair of their Thesis Committee. At the beginning of the second year students should write a research proposal outlining their research project. Approximately ten pages in length this proposal should describe the aims of the research and provide a broader theoretical framework. After this is approved students begin to conduct individual research in the field or in the library. Students must enroll in a minimum of 4 units of Thesis Study (SEAS 299) or Directed Research (SEAS 297) under the supervision of a Southeast Asian Studies faculty. Before filing the thesis with the Graduate Division students must pass a formal oral examination.

Plan II (Comprehensive Exam)

Students concurrently enrolled in another degree program requiring an M.A. thesis may (with the approval of the Southeast Asian Studies faculty) be awarded the M.A. degree by passing a comprehensive examination.

Concurrent Enrollment

Concurrent Enrollment students are enrolled in both the M.A. SEAS program and a Ph.D. program in a cooperating department. These students must complete the following 40 units to earn the degree:

- 20 units of core courses, listed above, unique to SEAS program.
 - o SEAS 200
 - o 4 courses from the 6 above areas
- 16 elective units can be from the home Ph.D. program with the approval of SEAS faculty.
- 4 units in either SEAS 297 or 299 toward completing the comprehensive exam or thesis.

M.A. – Ph.D. Track

M.A. – Ph.D. Track students are in the M.A. SEAS program and have been preliminarily accepted to a Ph.D. program in a cooperating department. These students must complete the following 40 units to earn the degree:

- 20 units of core courses, listed above, unique to SEAS program.
 - o SEAS 200
 - o 4 courses from the 6 above areas
- 16 elective units can be from the home Ph.D. program with the approval of SEAS faculty.

- 4 units in SEAS 299 toward completing the thesis.

Continuation in the Ph.D. program is not guaranteed, but subject to review by the cooperating department. After completion of the M.A. in Southeast Asian Studies, M.A. – Ph.D. track students will need to reapply through Graduate Admissions (fee waived) to the cooperating department for approval and official admission into the Ph.D. program.

University Requirements.

All master's students must be enrolled for at least three quarters to fulfill the University residency requirement and must hold at least a 3.00 GPA in all upper division and graduate level course work related to the degree. Designated Emphasis Requirements

The Designated Emphasis is a 12-unit interdisciplinary graduate course of study, requiring coursework across at least two departments. Two of the three required courses, if otherwise eligible, may count towards the student's Ph.D. requirements.

1. All students must complete a ENGL 297 graduate course (4 units) with an affiliated faculty member that produces an approximately 25-page research paper. This course will fulfill the research requirement of the Designated Emphasis.

2. Two (2) courses (8 units) selected from ANTH 262, CPLT 272, CPLT 273, CPLT 275, CPLT 276, CWPA 255, ENGL 246, ENGL 247, ENGL 248, ETST 243F, HIST 287A, MUS 251, MUS 264, and PHIL 237. Students may ask to count another course with relevant content as approved by the Designated Emphasis Director. Students must select courses from at least two different departments or programs, one of which may be their home department. Undergraduate courses taken to fulfill these requirements must be accompanied by a 292 course with extra work mutually agreed upon by professor and student.

All requirements for the Designated Emphasis must be satisfied before a student advances to candidacy in their Ph.D. field; a minimum GPA of 3.0 is required for the award of the Designated Emphasis.
